NEXCOM Names Its 2010 Bingham Award Winners

The Navy Exchange Service Command (NEXCOM) has announced its Bingham Award winners for 2010. Winners of the Bingham Award are those NEXs that showed superior performance over the past year in service to Sailors and their families.

“Winning the Bingham Award represents a tremendous achievement on the part of all NEX associates and management as well as the base community,” said Rear Adm. (Sel) Glenn C. Robillard, Commander, NEXCOM. “The competition is fierce among all our stores. The Bingham Award winners should be extremely proud of the work they did providing outstanding service to our customers. Bravo Zulu to each and every one of them.”

The 2010 winners and runners-up of the Bingham Award are:

The Bingham Award Program was established in 1979 to recognize excellence in customer service, operations and management at NEX activities. The award is named after the late Capt. W.H. Bingham, Supply Corps, U. S. Navy Reserve. Bingham was the Chief Executive Officer of the R.H. Macy's company and was appointed by the Secretary of the Navy in 1946 to lead an advisory board for the establishment of the Navy Exchange System.

The Bingham Awards will be presented during local ceremonies to be determined at a later date.
